business, e.g. emergence of new technologies, expiry of patents, any change of accounting policy that may have a significant impact on the accounts, etc. and brief details thereof and any other information which is exclusively known to the Company which may be necessary to enable the holders of securities of the Company to appraise its position and to avoid the establishment of a false market in such securities.

The time lines for disclosures of such events as prescribed are given in Annexure II to this policy

3. Any other information/ event viz. any major development that is likely to affect business, e.g. emergence of new technologies, expiry of patents, any change of accounting policy that may have a significant impact on the accounts, etc. and brief details thereof and any other information which is exclusively known to the Company which may be necessary to enable the holders of securities of the Company to appraise its position and to avoid the establishment of a false market in such securities.
4. Events/ information with respect to subsidiaries which are material for the Company, shall also be disclosed to the Stock Exchanges in accordance with Listing Regulations.
5. The Company shall disclose all further material developments with respect to the disclosures referred to in this Policy on a regular basis, till the event is resolved/ closed, with relevant explanations.
6. The Company may make disclosures of events/ information as specified by SEBI from time to time.
7. Details to be provided to the Stock Exchanges while disclosing material events/ information shall be in compliance with the requirements of the Listing Regulations and circulars as may be notified by SEBI from time to time.
8. In case where an event occurs or an information is available with the Company, which has not been indicated in Para A or B of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations, but which may have material effect on the Company, as determined by the Board of the Company or Authorized Persons in accordance with this Policy, the Company is required to make disclosures in regard thereof.
9. - (b) the omission of such event and/or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date;

In case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a) and (b) are not applicable, an event/information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Compliance Officer and/or the Board of Directors, the event / information is considered material. Provided that the when the materiality is required to be defined, the Key Managerial Personnel(s) of the Company i.e. Company Secretary, Managing Director and Chief Financial Officer of the Company shall jointly or severally decide on whether an event/information is material or not.

Quantitative Criteria would mean the omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the least of the following:

- (a) 2% (two percent) of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company;
- (b) 2% (two percent) of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company, except in case the arithmetic value of the net-worth is negative;
- (c) 5% (five percent) of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the Company.

In terms of the SEBI Circular No. SEBI/HO/CFD/CFD-PoD-1/P/CIR/2023/123 dated July 13, 2023, if the average of absolute value of profit or loss is required to be considered by disregarding the 'sign' (positive or negative) that denotes such value as the said value/ figure is required only for determining the threshold for 'materiality' of the event and not for any commercial consideration.

- 2. Materiality will be determined on a case to case basis depending on specific facts and circumstances relating to the information/ event. In order to determine whether a particular event/ information is material in nature, the 'quantitative' and/ or 'qualitative' factors shall be considered.
- 3. In a case where the quantitative and qualitative criteria as above are not applicable, an event or information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board of the Company, the event or information is considered material.

VII. Guidelines on occurrence of an Event / Information & its timely disclosure

- (i) The occurrence of material events/ information:
 - (a) depends upon the stage of discussion, negotiation or approval; and
 - (b) in case of natural calamities disrupting operations etc., it would depend upon the timing when the company became aware of the event/ information.
- (ii) In respect of the events under 7(i)(a), the events/information can be said to have occurred upon receipt of approval of the Board e.g. further issue of capital by rights issuance and in certain events/ information after receipt of approval of both i.e. Board and Shareholders.

However, considering the price sensitivity involved for certain events e.g. decision on declaration of dividends etc., disclosure shall be made on receipt of approval of the event by the Board, pending Shareholder's approval. Approvals other than final approval, such as in-principle approval or approval to explore (which is not final approval) given by the Board, will not require disclosure under this Policy.

- (iii) In respect of the events under 7(ii)(b), the events/information can be said to have occurred when the Company becomes aware of the events/information, or as soon as, an officer of the Company has, or ought to have reasonably come into possession of the information in the course of the performance of his duties. The term 'officer' shall have the same meaning as defined under the Companies Act, 2013 and shall also include Promoter of the Company.

VIII. Responding to the Market Rumours

- (i) Effective from April 1, 2024, in terms of Regulation 30(11), the Company shall confirm, deny or clarify any event or information reported in the Mainstream Media which is not general in nature and which indicates that rumours of an impending specific Material Event or Information in terms of the SEBI Regulations are circulating amongst the investing public.
- (ii) The Company shall confirm/ deny/ clarify the market rumour, as soon as reasonably possible but not later than 24 hours from the reporting of event/ information.
- (iii) The Company shall also adhere to the Code of Fair Disclosure framed under the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

IX. Administrative Measures

- (i) Unless otherwise decided by the Board, the Authorized Persons shall be jointly or severally authorized to determine materiality of an event or information for the purpose of making disclosure to the Stock Exchanges.
- (ii) The Authorized Persons will be guided by the circulars issued by SEBI from time to time, while expressing a view on whether an event/ information has occurred requiring a disclosure to be made under this Policy and the contents of such disclosure.
- (iii) The Authorized Persons shall take into consideration totality of factors surrounding the particular information to take a view on whether the information is market sensitive information.
- (iv) The Authorized Persons may seek expert advice where so felt necessary as to whether the information is required to be disclosed in accordance with the terms of this Policy.
- (v) The heads of various departments of the Company will support the Authorized Persons with regard to compliance of the terms of this Policy, and forthwith notify the Authorized Persons and provide all relevant details with regard to any event/ information which is likely to be construed as material under Clause 4 of this Policy.
- (vi) The contact details of the Authorized Persons shall be disclosed to the Stock Exchange(s) and also be placed on the Company's website.
- (vii) The Compliance Officer shall make necessary disclosures to the Stock Exchange(s) and ensure overall compliance of this Policy.

X. Interpretation:

In any circumstance where the terms of this Policy differ from any existing or newly enacted law, rule or regulation governing the Company, the law, rule, or regulation will take precedence over this Policy and procedures until such time as this Policy is changed to conform to the law, rule or regulation.
